Fall 2008: Reach Child and Youth Development Society was the recipient of a donation from The Delta Community Foundation to help with counselling children and families with special needs. Through a generous Delta donor Reach was able to open more spaces for a special counselling program. The service provides play therapy helping children through stressful incidents such as separation from foster parents, anxiety regarding traumatic events, and frustration and aggression in response to having a sibling with developmental disabilities. Reach received their donation from Barry Irvine (President) and Denise Denischuk from the Delta Community Foundation Also shown in the picture is Yvonne McKenna, Reach Counsellor, and Renie D'Aquila, Reach Executive Director.
