JUNE 2015 - FINDS CELEBRATES ONE YEAR ANNIVERSARY!

Specialty children's thrift store 'Finds', in the heart of Ladner, celebrates its 1st Anniversary this June. All proceeds benefit Reach Child and Youth Development Society, a local non-profit that provides programs and services to children with special needs and their families.

Reach Society's social enterprise specializes in all things baby and child: clothes, shoes, toys, strollers, high chairs and more. Finds customer Carole Douglas reports, 'the shop is very well organized, clean, well-decorated and smells wonderful'. Finds could not exist without the volunteers who man it and the local people who donate to it. Jean Heggie, Finds volunteer, says, 'it's not a junk store, we have good quality items'.

Jean enjoys interacting with the clientele. It's a chance to network with parent and grandparent customers over the similar focus of their lives - kids and grandkids! Linda Edwards, Finds volunteer scheduler, cites the importance of organization and ability to see results where she volunteers as making the experience rewarding. She also reports meeting fantastic life-long friends through volunteering. In addition, volunteering can provide a sense of belonging to those new to the area.

Finds is currently looking for new volunteers to join the team. There are shifts available, 10-2, Tuesday to Saturday at 4927 Elliott St. Ladner. Finds store volunteers have the opportunity to sift through new-to-you treasures for the special little people in their lives while contributing to a great cause.
