

Early Years Centre

The Delta Early Years Centre is a community partnership between the Ministry of Children and Family Development, Reach Child and Youth Development Society, the Corporation of Delta, the Delta School District, Fraser Health and the Delta Kids Committee. The centre is located at 11415- 84th Avenue North Delta, B.C. at the North Delta Recreation Centre.

Members of Delta Council, Mayor Lois Jackson, Cloverdale-Surrey MLA and Children and Family Development Minister Stephanie Cadieux, Delta North MLA Scott Hamilton, members of the Reach Youth and Child Development Society, and members of the Delta School District celebrate the opening of the Deltakids BC Early Years Centre at the North Delta Rec Centre October 17, 2014

Click the link to read about the opening in The now Newspaper: <http://www.thenownewspaper.com/news/north-delta-welcomes-one-of-12-new-early-years-centres-across-b-c-1.1431356>

DeltaKids Early Years Centre provides one stop access to a range of early year`s programs for parents, grandparents and caregivers with young children up to 6 years of age.

The DeltaKids EYC partners are committed to working together to meet the needs of families in our community.

The Early Years Centre is a place where families and caregivers can access programs, information and resources.

DeltaKids EYC’s will provide:

-

Space for early childhood programs and services

-

A range of drop in programs and group sessions

-

Early developmental screening

-

Early childhood resources and education

-

Resources to community settings

The Early Years Centre is located at 11415 84th Ave at Reach's Play and Learn Centre in the North Delta Recreation Centre.

Early Years Brochure 2016

For more information contact: 778.578.7840

Read more about the BC Provincial Governments Early years strategy here >
http://www.mcf.gov.bc.ca/early_years/centres.htm

