Reach Child & Youth Development Society Programs for my child/youth:

Under 3

- Infant Development Program
- Therapies
- REACH Autism Program
- Supported Child Development
- Aboriginal Supported Child Development

Under 6

- Early Learning Centre-North
- Early Learning Centre-South
- REACH Autism Program
- Therapies
- Supported Child Development
- Aboriginal Supported Child Development
- Counselling
- Respite
- Preschool Summer Camp

Over 6

- REACH Autism Program
- Respite
- Group Respite
- GCT TEENSS
- Fortis BC Sibshops
- Counselling
- Supported Child Development
- Aboriginal Supported Child Development
- REACH Young Adult Group
- REACH Trans Youth Support Group

Guardian /Parent

- Delta CONNEX
- Positive Behaviour Support
- Positive Connections
- Family Navigator
- Parent to Parent Group (Punjabi)
- Parent to Parent Group (English)
- New Autism Diagnosis Orientation
- Delta Down Syndrome Parent Support Group
- Counselling
- M-PWR
- REACH Parent Peer Support Group
- REACH Trans Caregiver Support Group

Once a child/youth is referred to a program:
Staff complete intake and conduct assessments (developmental/behavioural etc).
After assessment, a strengths-based, goal-oriented plan is developed.
Depending on the program, staff engage directly with children/youth, parents, caregivers and relevant organizations to educate, model, mentor and coach in order to build skills and achieve goals, ultimately enhancing well-beign and improving overall quality of life.

Delta
Surrey
Langley
Metro Vancouver

reach
CHILD AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY
"BELIEVING IN POTENTIAL"

Fee for service
Social worker referral needed

AM February 2026